

Linda Gruhlke

November 15, 1944 - June 7, 2025

Linda Gruhlke passed away peacefully on June 7, 2025 at her residence. She was born on November 15, 1944 in Harrisburg, PA to the late Clair and Mary (Donmoyer) March. After retiring to Myrtle Beach with her husband, she enjoyed her part-time job working at Food Lion where she met wonderful people and gained many fantastic friends. She loved the sunshine and time at the pool. Linda had a knack for decorating and enjoyed filling the house and carport with decor for each different holiday/season. She had a warm smile and a generous heart and her faith in God gave her the strength to fight a 3 and 1/2 year battle against an aggressive type of cancer. She is survived by her husband, Wayne Gruhlke; brother David March; daughters Heather Boyer, Cindy Weaver (Rich), Alicia Foy (John); stepdaughters Teri Mang (Byron), Jill Ahern (Jeff) and Wendy Auer; grandsons Connor, Christopher (fiancé Anna), Steve (Ashley), Tim, Michael and Matthew; granddaughters Kara (Matthew), Nicole (Kyle), Krista (Wesley), Vanessa, Christina (Sean), Jennifer (fiancé Quaid), Elizabeth and Lauren; great-granddaughters Riley, Adalyn, Chloe, Isabella, Chloe W., Jordyn and Coral and great-grandsons Terrance, Sean, Anthony, Christopher and Nathan. A family graveside service and celebration will be held at Centerview Cemetery in Biglerville, PA. A Celebration of Life will also be held in Myrtle Beach in the near future.
