

Linda Shea Jumbercotta

February 5, 1945 - September 1, 2023

Conway, SC...

Linda Shea Jumbercotta, age 78, passed away Friday, September 1, 2023 following an extended battle with various ailments associated with congestive heart failure. Her devotion to family, selflessness, strength, and leadership will forever serve as an example for all as we follow her through the pathway of life.

Mrs. Jumbercotta was a devoted wife to her husband of 57 years, Lou Jumbercotta of Conway, SC; and beloved mother to two sons, Louis "Bo" Jumbercotta, III (Wendy) of Dumfries, VA and Andrew Jumbercotta of Wilmington, NC; four "best friend" grandchildren, Brodie Jumbercotta of Wilmington, NC, Emily Jumbercotta of Dumfries, VA, Griffin Jumbercotta of Wilmington, NC, and Sophie Jumbercotta of Dumfries, VA; three lovely sisters, Pat Harrington (Tommy) of Lake City, FL, Kathy Cruce of Valdosta, GA, and Mary Wilson of King, NC; and many nieces, nephews, great nieces and great nephews.

Mrs. Jumbercotta was born in Orient, PA a daughter of the late Oswell Paul Shea and the late Mary Shea. In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by one brother, Michael P. Shea; and one sister, Wilma Inez Hill.

Always welcoming with the gift of gab, Mrs. Jumbercotta never met a stranger and could talk to anyone as she was knowledgeable on many topics and life experiences. A day never passed when she didn't check in or speak to her sisters and discuss a variety of topics around personal current events. Mrs. Jumbercotta got the most joy interacting daily with her best friend grandchildren, offering worldly advice that they will always carry with them through their adult years.

During her life, Mrs. Jumbercotta was a Mortgage Loan Officer and a Certified Master Gardener spending many hours volunteering within the community for the VA Coop Extension Service. She enjoyed researching ancestry and genealogy and following current events. Since moving from Virginia, Mrs. Jumbercotta was a member of St. James Catholic Church in Conway, SC.

“ My deepest sympathies to you Lou, and the wonderful Jumpercotta Family. Although I only knew Linda for a few years during her time in Dumfries, she left many happy memories during that time. I remember laughing as she told funny stories about her boys. They were the love of her life - beside Lou of course.

Linda always lit up the room upon entering with her cheerful, happy face. I know she will continue to brighten up the heavens with that same infectious, wonderful personality.

Rest in peace dear friend. You will be dearly missed.
