“ Love and prayers to the family of this dear lady. The hours we spent together will always be special to me. We shared many stories, many laughs and yes a few tears. She had an amazing faith and loved deeply. As I go through the remainder of my life I'll rest easier knowing that I have another special "Angel". I love you Ms Linda!!

“ My concern condolences to the families of Linda Richardson Stalvey. She and I were classmates in High School and I had several classes together. She was a great friend and I so enjoyed our good times. She was very professional and I appreciated that about her personality. We enjoyed talking in class without the teacher catching us! A wonderful friend! I will miss her.

“ To the family,
I am so deeply sorry for the loss of Linda: your mother, grandmother, great grandmother, sister, aunt, mother-in-law and any other title she held. I'll always remember my friend in so many positive ways - with her beautiful smile and wonderful sense of humor. As we all grieve for her, know that we are also honoring her life. She made a difference in this world and has left a footprint on each heart she touched.
With loving sympathy,
Debbie

“ Linda,
You were such a dear, sweet friend. The so called "Teacher Gang" already misses your beautiful words that you always were able to share with us when something was wrong with us or a family member. You were so caring and interested in how we and our families were doing.
You were one of the most selfless, loving, and sweet spirited persons I have ever known. I will always treasure our talks and how we could talk about serious things, yet in the same conversation we could always find something that made us laugh together. You were such a strong example of a devoted Christian. You let your "light" shine and made it known you were there to comfort or help in any way that you could. You went through so many trials with your health, but you were always so brave and always anticipated that things would get better. Do you even know how many people you were an example for and how they wished to be as strong as you?
There are more than you ever knew. I love and miss you already, but as a Christian we both know we will see each other again in heaven. You were a blessing to your family, your friends, and your students and your memory will live on forever. In His Love, Debbie
