“ I was such a small part of your life, we only met once yet we became friends, even though we lived on different continents.... we remained pen pals... how old am I! You were such a giving person, I came to NY and you showed me around, something I will always cherish. We had a thing that would mean nothing to anyone, probably, we spent a day counting people with NY hats!.... to be honest when I see one now I think of you and smile.... it is nearly what would have been your birthday, I hope you are smiling!

“ I'm so saddened to hear about Lisa's passing. We were friends throughout junior high and high school but had lost touch over the years. Lisa had a heart of gold and such a wonderful personality. So many friends have passed way too soon. My heart goes out to her family and friends. May she rest in peace

“ My name is Carrie Bell and I have known Lisa Furgess since kindergarten at North Stratfield. I moved and dint reconnect with her until 7th grade. We were not in the same circles in high school and I was bullied severely so I spent most of my time in NYC at nightclubs etc...but Lisa never teased me..we may have had different friends and different high school memories but once grown we reconnected through Facebook. She was living in NYC and I visited her on a trip home where we realised how similar we were and high school differences fade away leaving the person underneath to emerge open and free with a whole new way of viewing things and seeing the world. I was glad we had that reconnection...my view of her had changed and i saw that we had experienced many of the same things only in different ways and in different circles. And we bonded through that. I remember taking a photo of her that night on my insistence...she hated her photo taken and I am looking for it. If I could say a few things I am truly grateful for is knowing her as a grownup and seeing her again and also having a photo of her. Lisa....you will be missed by me until I join you. Love, Carriebell.
Knowing the last place Lisa lived was S. Carolina this is my song for you Lisa...

“ Lisa was a co-worker that turned into a dear friend. She was a person with a generous spirit and big heart. We had so many laughs together and we shared so many inside jokes that would always find their way into our conversations. There is not much I can say about losing someone who was such a sweet, loving person who always remained optimistic no matter what was thrown at her. I'm lucky that I had a friend who was always there to listen when you were down and share a laugh with you instead of wallowing. She will be missed but never forgotten. The only comfort I can find is to know that she is reunited with her beloved family members and pets that have passed before her. With my deepest sympathy to her family, Diane N.

“ My deepest sympathy to Lisa's family.

*Lisa was a big part of my family growing up. So many memories.
Lisa was so much fun! Lisa was a close friend of my sister Sharene and was even a part of her wedding party (she served as a Bridesmaid). She spent my times with us and it is so difficult for me to comprehend that she is no longer with us. I found a beautiful photo of her just the other night, in her bridesmaid gown and she looked so happy and so pretty. I am choking up as I type this.*

I will keep all in my prayers and again, my deepest sympathy. Lisa's sunny spirit was live on in me.

“ *My deepest sympathy to Lisa's dad and his family. Lisa and I were friends since 6th grade at McKinley school. We had spent many weekends having sleepovers, talking about boys, going to the movies ,doing gymnastics and sharing a lot of laughter. Lisa had hamsters. She would let these little buggers crawl around freely while we slept...well, actually, she slept. I kept an eye out for them all night.
I will always remember Lisa's buoyant personality, sparkling eyes, mischievousness, and her kind nature. May she rest in peace and may you find peace in her memory as well.
Sincerely,
Lisa Suzanne Giordano*
