“ I only learned of Lisa's passing this morning. I have often looked for Lisa over the years wondering where she was and what amazing things she was doing. Lisa had a way of always making me laugh, no matter what was happening. My deepest sympathies to all of you, especially her children. I am sure that she is watching over everyone as she always did.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, the kind acts of friends and strangers, as well as your memories give you comfort to help you endure the days ahead. The Bible also offers comfort. “For God is near to those broken at heart. “ Ps 34:17,18. Our Creator promises that there will soon be a time when “death will be no more.” Revelation 21:4

I have always found this quote comforting in times of loss. "The person that you loved isn't where they were before, now they are wherever you are." Please know you have my deepest sympathies and most sincere thoughts and prayers.
