“ Lisa I still can't swallow the fact that you're gone and I won't be able to share anymore moments with you. You were such a pleasure to work with and your disposition was always sincere. I will miss you deeply God once again has claimed one of his angels to come home. Please tell my grandma that I still miss her everyday and hope to see her one day. You are in a better place be in peace Lisa. Love always, your friend and co-worker, Crystal Valentine.

“ Lisa was a special person and a special friend to me. I met her when we both worked for C&P. I will always remember her smile and chuckle. I was elated when she found "her man" and rejoiced with her. I was devastated for her when he died. Now, they are reunited and can be happy ever after. I will miss knowing she is here but am a better person for having known her. My condolences to all of her family--God be with you and give you peace.

“ Lisa was one of the nicest, kindest people that I had the privilege of working with at The Litchfield Beach and Golf Resort. She always had a smile on her face, and always had a nice thing to say every time I saw her at work (or cute photos to show of her pets!). She was a joy to everyone there, and she will be sorely missed. My condolences to her family.

"Don't be dismayed at goodbyes. A farewell is necessary before you can meet again. And meeting again, after moments or lifetime, is certain for those who are friends." ~Richard Bach “ Lisa was the first person to befriend me when I started working at C&P in Virginia. We quickly became good friends and she was the first baby-sitter for my oldest daughter. Her birthday was only days from mine and we always commented on that is what made us "compatible". I spoke with her in July on our trip to Myrtle Beach and missed seeing her on our visit. God be with all of you. Lisa is happy now with Dennis & her Dad.

“ Lisa-I will always remember you for your quick wit and huge sense of humor. You could make me laugh even on the worst days. It's hard to think that our paths that crossed over 30 years ago are no more. Your friends think of you daily and that's the best gift of all.

“ *Lisa was unique and special,
Special friends are hard to find,
A friend who always knows somethings on your mind.*

*she knew when I was happy,
She know when I were sad,
She knew when I was tired,
And She knew when I was having a bad day...*

*All our secrets we have shared,
Tell anyone else-we wouldn't dare,
Sometimes fights they will begin,
But always end with a big grin
and many laughs.....*

*The talks we had over the years,
Ranged from weather to crazy dreams.
our family's were always top conversation*

*Lisa worried more about everyone else
then she did herself..That was her way..*

I Know she is with her beloved husband and father and will never pass our golf office without a moment of sadness missing my Friend

*I love you Lisa, Thanks for your friendship..Thanks for all the laughs, Mushroom and I will never be able to replace the hole you

“ I will miss Lisa so Much! She was the sweetest person. She fought a courageos battle. I believe she is looking down on all of us and smiling. I know we wonder why some people are taken so young. I believe God has a plan for all of us and someday we will be with our loved ones again. My thoughts nd prayers to Lisa's family.

“ Lisa was my patient on rehab at Waccamaw .I feel so privileged to have had the opportunity to meet Lisa and to become not only her therapist but her friend.She was so much fun to work with as she tried her best to get back to walking and doing things for herself. I really enjoyed talking to her and reminiscing about growing up in the 70's. My thoughts are with all of her family as they remember her life and the joys she brought to everyone. Know that the Lord will be with you now and in the future.I will keep you all in my prayers. Lisa's smile will not be forgotten as she brightened up the lives of so many people. Love, Debbie Shealy P.T.
