

Lisalotte Wilma Crayton

August 20, 2006

North Litchfield Beach Lisalotte Wilma "Lilo" Roscher Crayton, age 89 of Windover Drive died Sunday, August 20, 2006 at her home. Born May 15, 1917 in Staten Island, NY, she was the daughter of the late Ernst Karl and Katharina Becher Roscher. Mrs. Crayton was a long time resident of Pawleys Island and a member of St. Peters Lutheran Church. She was a portrait artist. Surviving are son, Kai Jacob of Phippsburg, Maine; grandsons, Ian Jacob of Portland, Maine and Niels Jacob of Kennebunkport, Maine and many dear friends and neighbors throughout the United States and Germany. Memorial services will be at a later date at St. Peters Lutheran Church. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Seacoast Artist Guild, PO Box 2370, Murrells Inlet, SC 29576.

Tribute Wall

“ I never forget my stay in SC with Lilo and her lovely doggy's, our "catching the sandfleas" and her lovely drawings. It was a great time. My love to the family. See you Kirsten##imported-begin##Kirsten Flaeschner##imported-end##

---

August 29, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ I will never forget you or the time we shared together. I want to say thank you for the beautiful time at Hans and MA house in Seattle, or at Grower's house in Clealum. Thank you for everything. In love Andy##imported-begin##Andreas Andy Flaeschner##imported-end##

---

August 28, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ NULL##imported-begin##Andreas Andy Flaeschner##imported-end##

---

August 28, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ We will never forget Lilo and wish, she will meet her sister, brother in Law and all people she loved. Hans and Ulla Flaeschner##imported-begin##Flaeschner##imported-end##

---

August 27, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ Lilo was a very special friend to me. We shared many long walks along the beach with her two beloved doggies, feeding the birds and talking about our life experiences. She was so loving and I will miss her so much. My love to Ian.##imported-begin##Carol Cory##imported-end##

---

August 23, 2006 at 12:00 AM