“ The sorrow that I feel for you at this moment cannot be expressed. I know what it's like to lose someone in death and dealing with the loss is never easy. I have found that comfort can be gained by reliance on God's word the bible. It has provided me with much strength in order to endure at moments like this. Psalms 55:22 encourages us to throw our burdens upon Him and He will sustain us and 2Cor. 1:3,4 tells us that He is the Father of tender mercies who comfort us in our tribulations. These words have given me full confidence that God does care when we are experiencing pain and hardship. I have learned to no longer be ignorant concerning those sleeping in death 1Thes.4:13, but now have the hope outlined at John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15 towards the resurrection for those lying in their memorial tombs. This resurrection hope will come about by means of God's Kingdom, which is an actual government that will bring about conditions that God purposed. According to Psalms 37:28; Gen. 1:28 and Isaiah 45:18 God desired the earth to be possessed by man to live forever. I await this time in the near future and hope that with further reading and meditation through your own bible, you will be upbuilded. Gain faith by knowing that it is impossible for God to lie Titus 1:2.##imported-begin##Freda##imported-end##
