“Lloyd's replacement for our Wednesday night's service say it well, "He has some big shoes to fill." I personally will miss Lloyd and his warm greetings every Sunday and Wednesday, having lunch together and all his interesting stories. I sense he has left a good legacy for all to follow as we strive to follow his Lord Jesus.

Yes our loss but Heaven's gain and I'm sure there was rejoicing as he came to his final home. If we can help in anyway let us know or call the church.

*Love and prayers,

“ Lloyd was a wonderful father-in-law and ex father-in-law. His heart was big enough to hold many people and his ability to treat all with love and respect was an example to follow. Lloyd and Joann where the perfect examples of a loving couple and wonderful parents. I always saw and heard stories of what he did for his family and I believe that Cass and Karen are richer because of their parents. Lloyd as the father and leader of his family is a man I will never forget and I hope all of his grandchildren will follow the example of both grandfather and grandmother. He will be missed, but never forgotten. I know I will carry both in my heart.

“ I got to know and love Mr Lloyd when my family moved to South Carolina. We went to Langston church together. He adopted us as as family. We had many Sunday dinners together after church. He talked so much about his family how proud he was off all of them. My family moved back to Indiana 8 years ago. But Mr Lloyd and I kept in touch calling sending cards. Love hearing about new church he was going to. Helping at Sheppard table and his lady friends. My son joined Marines so they would talk about service. My husband was in Army and love fishing they would talk about those things. Mr Lloyd always had a smile, his cowboy hat, jacket and candy in his pocket. I admire him for being in the service and walking about 5 miles every day. May God bless you all.

“ I enjoyed getting to know Lloyd at family gatherings. He was friendly to everyone and an interesting conversationalist. He talked a lot about his volunteer work at Shepherd's Table and it was obvious that he truly had a servant's heart. He loved God and loved his country. I appreciate his service to our country through his military career but I don't think I ever told him that. He always sent us a Christmas card and endearingly signed it, "Lloyd Fariior, Karen's dad", as if we might not remember him. Of course, I remember him. I will always remember him.

“ I am a long time friend of Loyd's. We were gym buddies. We met at the Conway Medical Center gym. I knew him before his wife died. When that center closed we both moved to CRD. He walked many, many miles. We would talk every time we saw each other, probably for 20 years.
He was a very nice guy. I feel lucky to have known him. He loved the Lord and helping others. I will miss seeing him walk that track.
