“ Mom, I have spent a week planning your funeral and I think you will be smiling down on us on Thursday. I miss you and love you so much. But I know where you are and I know that I will see you again. Until then, keep a watch over us but only until we meet again in our Lord's house. Rest in peace my sweet Mother

“ I remember the first time I met Kay's mom. Kay and I had been college roommates and my husband and I went to visit Kay at her home in Bethesda. Ms. McKeown was so warm and inviting that we loved her from the first time we met. When we all went to the race track and my husband and I spent all our vacation money, earned on our first and last ever cucumber crop, both Kay's mom and dad were royally entertained by that craziness because they knew the work it took to pick those cucumbers. How we have laughed and retold that story. Even these many years later, we remember her warmth and kindness during that first of many visits.
