

Loralee H. Badgett

February 25, 1944 - May 21, 2016

Mrs. Loralee Hutcheson Badgett, 72, of Conway, South Carolina passed away peacefully with her family by her side on Saturday, May 21, 2016, at Grand Strand Regional Medical Center. She was born in Boise, Idaho, on February 25, 1944, to Roland and Anne Hutcheson. She grew up in Ft .Smith, Arkansas. Upon graduation from high school, Loralee moved to St. Louis and attended Font Bonne College. She went on from there to Louisville, Kentucky to study art at the University of Louisville, where Loralee met and married Dr. Thomas M. Badgett in 1965. They moved to Conway, South Carolina shortly thereafter.

During her time here on earth, Loralee truly lived life to the fullest through simple pleasures; chatting with friends and family, traveling, shopping, and studying genealogy. She spent countless hours researching her family history. She was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Daughters of the Confederacy, as well as the Colonial Dames. During her research, Loralee was able to trace her family's heritage all the way back to the Mayflower. She was a very social, fun loving, and giving person who had a heart of gold and will be forever missed! Loralee never met a stranger, and people always knew that they could count on her for anything. She was a devoted friend.

There was no greater joy in her life, than her family who she leaves behind. Survivors include, Dr. Thomas M. Badgett, her husband of nearly 51 years, her three daughters, Shelley (Jeb) Collins, Katie Badgett (Nikolay Novakov), and Ginny (Jeff) Horowitz, and her five grandsons, J.B. Collins, Luke Horowitz, Parker Collins, Joel Horowitz, and Thomas Novakov. She is also survived by her sister, Candi Beverly, a special friend, Thelma Rogers, and multiple nieces and nephews including an honorary godchild, Brey Montondo. Funeral Services will be held on Wednesday, May 25, 2016 at 2:00 PM at St. Paul's Church in Conway, South Carolina. A reception will immediately follow at her home.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the Waccamaw Riverkeeper, 290 Allied Drive, Conway, S.C. 29526 or www.winyahrivers.org

“ Tom, I am so sorry to hear about Lorelee. I remember so fondly the wonderful times we had in Georgetown with the dental group. You and Lorelee were always so wonderful to all the Joseph family. I think so much of the Stalveys, Tillers Davis, Crosby, Bucks, Johnsons and my parents going out to dinner and so much laughter. Lorelee was a beautiful lady and you were a wonderful loving couple, Susan and I will keep you in our prayers. Johnny Joseph

I don't usually get the Sun News or read obituaries . Lorelee must have been sending me a message. We seemed to hit it off right away at Brightwater. Everything I read about her in her obituary, I found to be so true. She made my stay at Brightwater so much more enjoyable. We had great conversations and lots of laughs. For only knowing her for two months, I feel a painful loss. Francine
