“ I remember as a child, I always looked forward when my family and I would leave Wilmington (which seemed like every weekend) and head to Conway, S.C. Once there, we would meet up with our cousins (Uncle Pete's and Aunt Lorena's children) and play all day. We would come in and eat lunch which to me was always a feast, and run back out and play. Later, we would come in to get one of those world famous biscuits that Aunt Lorena had left over, and apply mustard to make a much needed "Mustard Biscuit!" Over the years, we lost touch and I lost that innocence of just taking the moment as it comes. I lost that completeness that comes by the simple love that a family brings. Aunt Lorena was loved by many and I wish I could have told her more often that I love her. To me, she was one of the last "Great Ladies". I will miss her. To her children, my dearest cousins, Letha, Wendell, Jimmy, Judy, Joyce, and Randall, your love for her was very evident and, we know, that by the grace of God, we will see her again. Please know I love you and my prayers are with you. Michael##imported-begin##Mike Salisbury##imported-end##
