“ Growing up, as our families lived across the street from one another, I quickly realized Olyce and Frank as my Aunt and Uncle. I remember playing catch with them both on their perfectly-kept lawn one summer. Olyce, despite her recent ailments, strived to put a positive perspective on life and it's many wonders. I will always treasure our talks. It was a blessing to know her.

Haven't seen Olyce, Frank or Frankie in years, but what sweet childhood memories I have of traveling from Pittsburgh to Myrtle Beach with our caravan of Scotty trailers. "Aunt" Olyce was always such the warm, gentle soul. She will be missed.
