“ To the parents and family of Lori,
I was so saddened to read about Lori's passing. I was a year older than Lori in high school and first met her my senior year in an accounting class. We shared a lot of laughs that semester, and although I only knew her for a short time, I have never forgotten her. Although quiet and shy at first, once I got to know her, I found her to be very funny and kind. My heart goes out to you during this very sad time. Please know my thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Memories Build a Special Bridge
Our memories build a special bridge when loved ones have to part to help us feel we're with them still and sooth a grieving heart. Our memories span the years we shared,
preserving ties that bind,
They build a special bridge of love and bring us peace of mind.

“ Please accept my sincerest sympathy. I know first-hand the feeling of losing a loved one too soon because I have been there on several occasions. At the same time, I have been comforted by the words of Jesus Christ who promises a resurrection of all those in the memorial tombs. (John 5:28, 29) I hope that his promise can bring you a measure of comfort.

“ Uncle Cliff, Aunt Carol, & Brian:

We have so many good memories of vacations in Connecticut and spending time with you and Lori. Time goes by so fast. Just four years ago, Donna and I were able to walk the beach with Lori, now she is walking the streets of gold! Hold onto God's promises. II Thess. 3:16 - "Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all."

God blessed all of our lives for 43 years with Lori. She was loved and will be missed by many. Can you imagine the stories that she is sharing with grandma right now?

*You are in our thoughts & prayers,

“ Cliff, Brian, Carol and all family and friends - As others have mentioned here already, my memories of childhood would not be complete without Lori in them. Since then, I see Cliff often and he has always beamed with pride, joy and love when talking about his children - Lori will be missed by many, but never forgotten, she will stay alive in our hearts with fond memories of wonderful times. I hope that the love of family and friends helps you through this most difficult time.

With love,
