“ I just found out about aunt Lorraine, and I am so very sorry. All the memories I have about Aunt Lorraine are just too many to write down from So. Milwaukee to Myrtle Beach. My favorite memories were of when she lived with Aunt Frans. Tom and I would get her and Uncle Frankie to give us money to go get penney candy. It was a great time to be in So. Milwaukee. Then over the years we all moved but still managed to get together every few years. I can believe that "the sisters" are all together in heaven, speaking in Slovak and laughing and laughing. They were so much fun when they got together.
To all my cousins, I am deeply sorry for your and our loss.
love, Barb
