“ As we write this you are preparing for what we know will be a beautiful celebration of Lorraine's life at St. Michael's Church. We will be thinking of you throughout the day and all the wonderful memories and good times we shared together. We remember in particular sitting at your kitchen table sharing thoughts on our kids, religion, Rockville, Dundee Court, schools and life in general. And of course, the many parties in our court, gatherings on our front porch steps, New Year's Eves and brunches on New Years Day, a myriad of cars in the court, musical events. \tLorraine had a great life, unwavering faith, wonderful husband, kids, grandkids. She loved reading about different places around the US and world and visited many of them---and oh how she loved Atlantic City! We know she suffered a lot of pain and are relieved that she is now at peace. \tOur prayers are with you all today. Fondly, \tJohn and Anne###imported-begin##John and Anne###imported-end##
