“ Lou was like a brother to me and a great friend. I will always remember the good times and the many card games. He would be the only one that would be CORKY'S partner. Enjoyed our road trips. Always sure that he had his pajamas with him. I am going to miss him more than words can say. You are all in my thoughts and prayers at this difficult time. Please know that we are always here for you .Rest in peace my friend.
