“ My condolences to the family of Mrs. Strickland. She was one of my elementary schools teachers. One of the few that I can honestly say "stuck" in my mind. She was always firm and tough, yet she was compassionate about what she did. She had a genuine love for teaching and for her students. I will always remember her as the wonderful teacher she was. Only wish we had more that were patterned after her. May God continue to keep your family.##imported-begin##thomasena mccray##imported-end##
