“ Although I only knew Ms. Lowell for about 2 years...it was enough time to know what a wonderful woman she was. Seeing her every Sunday at church and having the pleasure of speaking with her, has truly made an impact in my life. She was always so beautiful (inside and out) and even when her mind started to fade, she remained as friendly as always. My thoughts and prayers have been with the family and will remain. Please know that she touched many lives and even in her passing, will continue to do so.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, the kind acts of friends and strangers, as well as your memories give you comfort to help you endure the days ahead. The Bible also offers comfort. “For God is near to those broken at heart. “ Ps 34:17,18. Our Creator promises that there will soon be a time when “death will be no more.” Revelation 21:4

“ Brad, Sallie, and Anna,
We wanted you to know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. We did not make it to the visitation and so fully intended to go to your mother's funeral. Somehow I got the time confused and thought it was at 2:00 instead of at 10:00. By the time I found the correct time, it was too late to go. I know there is no one like your mother and want you to know that we do care and are praying for God's peace and comfort to fill your heart.
