“ I remember so well the first time I met Luc. I was spending the afternoon with Dan's Aunt Diane Aunt Sally and Uncle Luc and Uncle Tim. It was enjoyable to watch their friendship. I was very much treated like part of the family Luc always seemed to be enjoying life. He tried to catch the bouquet at my wedding! Every time I saw him he made a point to ask how my parents were. he always had a smile and kind greeting! My thoughts and prayers are with Aunt Diane, Becky, Cam and Adelyn

“ I have many good memories of Uncle Luc from my childhood and recent years, when I was lucky enough to live in the same city as Luc and Aunt Diane. Luc always had a twinkle in his eye, loved to laugh and tell stories, and was always very kind to me. I remember him quizzing me at Grandma and Grandpa's dinner table about different subjects, and feeling like a "big kid" because someone wanted to hear my opinions. One of the best parts of moving to Cincinnati years ago was getting to know Luc and Diane even better. Luc and I had many fun discussions about television news, politics and money. I was always out of my depth in the money discussions with him, but if he realized that (and I'm sure he did), he never let on. Luc and Diane were always so very kind to our three children, and it was wonderful I to see them get to welcome their own beautiful granddaughter, Adelyn. Becky was the apple of Luc's eye and I'm sure that Adelyn had a big place in his heart, too. My thoughts and prayers are with Diane, Becky, Cam, Adelyn, and the rest of the family. Rest in peace, Luc.

“ Luc's determination was a hallmark of his personality. He was a terrific goal-setter, working fearlessly to achieve his targets in sports, business, and hobbies. Luc, Diane, and Becky created many happy memories as a family that will now sustain Diane and Becky in the months and years ahead. If I had any regrets about Luc's sudden passing, it would be that he did not have the opportunity to write his memoirs. His upbringing in The Netherlands, his world travels for business, and his passionate love of soccer and Porsches would have made for a fascinating read penned by a fellow who was a terrific writer in his non-native language. God rest your soul, Luc.
