“ Myrtle Beach lost its Southern Belle - I enjoyed our little drive where you shared your younger days and you certainly loved all your life 📖 You were always impeccable..... You loved your wine and you could talk till the end of the party!!
I'm so sorry your last year's were so devastated, which I suspect contributed to trip to Heaven early...While I was unaware of your passing,
I must hope you know you were special and that my Father "George" said you were the only woman he ever "LOVED" and he had a few....
You were a spit fire as your "RED HAIR" was a warning..... but your intelligence and your stand your ground style truly knocked him for a loop. Trust me all of his girls were glad to see that 😊
I was late to the game & my Father had his faults but we squared them up and he went to Heaven because he wanted to, & Lucy I know you were broken and you missed him dearly. But Unfortunately when we go to Heaven it's not like going on vacation - where we are allowed to all leave at the same time unless we are called at once in an accident. I know you fought every day to find a reason to live but as much as you wanted to - you missed Dad, your best Friend, you didn't have your home and your heart was soooo misplaced, you were lonely beyond words, But now you are in the arms of George and being welcomed into Heaven and of course you are hugging your healthy sisters....I'm certain you're talking to God !!!! Thank goodness he is patient - I hope there is wine there and it's better than anything here on earth... Lucy I know you are missed by many and there will never be another one like you.....I will always smile when I think of you - I'm so glad my dad found Love say Hello to Marta & give her a big hug💕💕

“ My dearest Ms Lucy, you were a strong, smart lady. God put us together when I needed someone to help and you needed help @ home. I will always remember our talks around the breakfast table and the stories you and Mr. George had to tell. You were a former employer who became a dear friend. Sometimes we heeded each other's advice and sometimes not but we always listened to each other. My funniest memory is you telling me to “ look @ those old people” and you were 89 yourself but then again you were young @ heart. I will always cherish your memory.

“ Dear Aunt Lulu,

You were a second mother to me through out my life. I am so thankful for all the time, and all the love you have shared with me and my family. I miss listening to all the stories and adventures you have had in your life. You have always been there for me with an open heart. I am going to miss coming to see you and our phone calls. We have shared so many fun and wonderful memories, since I was a little boy till now. I am happy that you are in heaven with my mother. I love and miss you so much Aunt Lulu, you will always be a part of my heart. It was an honor to be your nephew.

I love you,
Anthony & Laura
