Lucy Kirby

Lucy Kirby of Litchfield Beach died at the age of 76 on May 29th. She was born in 1935 in High Point, North Carolina, a daughter of the late Lucy R. and Louis B. Heilig. She was educated in High Point and then St. Mary's School and Jr. College in Raleigh, NC. She was a former member of the Junior League and a member of All Saints Episcopal Church.

She is survived by her husband of nearly thirty years, G. Walker Kirby; two sons Charles G. Froelich Jr., wife Melanie, of Marshall, NC, and Joseph H. Froelich, wife Uliana, of Smyrna, GA.; stepchildren, Robert Kirby and Carol Schafer; three grand grandchildren, Allison, Joseph and Anna Froelich; and "Katie" her black Labrador retriever. She also had a daughter Katherine R., who passed away in 1999.

Those that knew Lucy knew of her love for dogs, and that she lived by the motto "Love me, Love my Dog". In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in her honor to St. Francis Animal Center of Georgetown, or to Hospice of Georgetown.

There will be no visitation. A private memorial service will be held. A small reception will be held on Thursday, June 8th at approximately 1:30pm at 609 Doyle Avenue, Pawleys Island, South Carolina.
