“ Many many years ago (almost 40) Lyle was my supervisor at Palmetto Wholesale in Columbia. I can honestly say he was the nicest, most kindhearted person I ever knew. I still remember his infectious laugh. I have thought of him often over the years and am so glad I recently reconnected with him through Facebook. I am so sorry for your loss. This world has truly lost a good man.

“ There are so many memories even though I hadn't seen him for a while. At Speedway he brightened every day! My daughters and I had the privilege of being his and Gail's guests in 2005 for a week. We had such a wonderful time with them. Lyle was a godly, loving, and funny man. Heaven's gain is our loss. All of Lyle's family is in my prayers.

Lyle, Even though I had not seen you since I retired from marathon oil, I will always remember the great times we had working together, Lyle was such a Godly man and was always willing to lend a helping hand. I know he will surely be missed by all who knew him. May he rest in God's loving arms.
