

Lyndia Martin

December 29, 1947 - March 18, 2024

Loris...

Lyndia Bell Martin passed away on March 18, 2024, after battling cancer. Born on December 29, 1947 (76) in Loris, SC she was a daughter of the late L.D. and Annie Bell. She retired from the state where she worked at Green Sea Elementary School as a school bus driver and school aide. Lyndia was a devoted wife, mother, and grandmother. She had an uncanny ability to spread comfort to her family and was always "there" for anyone in need. She had a wonderful green thumb and was able to grow the best blueberries and vegetables even when many could not manage to grow anything. She made the best fried chicken, homemade mac and cheese, and fresh from her garden green beans. She never had to think about leftovers.

Lyndia is survived by her husband, Donald Ray Martin who she was married to for almost 57 years. She leaves behind her sons, Stony (Che') and Steven (Moni) along with five beloved grandchildren AnnaJane, Daniel, Aidyn, Allyn, and Magi. She is also survived by a brother Gene Bell, a sister Doris Butler (Lee), many wonderful nieces, and nephews, along with two special caregivers Kathy Robinson and Jackie.... She is predeceased by a sister, Kathleen Hipskind, and a brother, Leonard Bell.
