

Lynn Burdette Grant

August 15, 1933 - March 15, 2024

Lynn B. Grant, age 90, beloved and devoted husband to Galina and a retired Lt. Colonel in the US Air Force, passed away peacefully on Friday, March 15, 2024 at Grand Strand Regional Medical Center.

Lynn was born in Auburn Maine on August 15, 1933, a son of the late Hartwell B. Grant and Anna Voelker Grant.

He was a faithful, loving and compassionate husband. Galina describes him as an extraordinary man, very intelligent and always thinking outside the box. He enjoyed solving problems that others didn't want to tackle. Galina also fondly remembers Lynn's love for cooking. He was a wonderful cook and loved preparing desserts. Lynn had a servant's heart and cared deeply about his family and friends.

As a devoted Christian, Lynn loved reading and teaching the bible in addition to encouraging mission work. Lynn was a member at Grand Strand Baptist Church and spent many hours discussing bible prophecy with his pastor.

Lynn also loved his country and was deeply patriotic. He served 27 years in the US Air Force. He participated at the end of the Korean War and flew fighter missions with the 25th Tactical Fighter Squadron during the Vietnam War and later worked in accident investigation, aircraft maintenance, nuclear weapons training and survival training.

Lynn was an avid reader, enjoyed painting glass and working with his hands doing detailed home improvements. Lynn was also an amateur radio operator. In his later years he took pleasure in sharing stories of his amazing adventures throughout his well lived life, he will be profoundly missed.

Lynn Burdette Grant is survived by his loving wife of 22 years Galina Grant.

He has three daughters, Maya Baughman (Robert), Diana Flemming, Luyov Koshevaia and four grandchildren.
