“ Things I learned from Lynn - 1) real estate IS real law, 2) do one thing at a time and keep at it until it is finished, 3) you can show anger/frustration without using expletives, 4) hitting golf/tennis balls will make you feel better after a long day at work. I am better for having known her. Thoughts and prayers to Delan.

“ My condolences to Lynn's husband and family. I was her hairstylist for many year's. Lynn was one of the kindest people I have ever known. My life was blessed by knowing her. Her faith and trust in God, even when she didn't understand his plan was truly an inspiration. I take comfort in knowing we will see each other again. I pray for God to lift you all up, hold you close and comfort you.

“ I guess I've known Lynn since around 7th grade. I met Ward later in High School in a math class. I knew their dad Mr. George from the Jerry Cox department store. This family was always cordial and pleasant to be around. I remember the last time I saw Lynn at Good Hope Baptist. She looked so good and we talked just a little and she just seemed peaceful with her life. Delan and family, I'm so sorry that you've lost Lynn for now. No one can replace who she is. We may never get over those we've lost but hopefully we can learn to live with it somehow. May the good Lord hold you close during this sad time. We rejoice with you in the assurance that we'll see her again one day for all eternity. God bless you all and we love you.
