“ I haven't seen Ms. Lynne in some time, since she retired from Duncan and had moved on. She was a major part of my childhood at Duncan, as both of my parents were choir members and we spent a lot of time there on Wednesday nights. She watched me grow up, graduate (twice), become an educator, get married, have babies, and supported me every step of the way. There was never a time that I saw her that she didn't ask how my year at school was going or comment on the size of my growing son that she'd passed in the church hallway that morning. She was a special lady and my family will miss her! She affectionately called me "Babealicious" and I returned the nickname. What a hoot she was! Many prayers for your family. I know the loss of a mother has created a significant void in your lives. I'm praying for you in the difficult times to come.

Kate and family, I am so sorry for your loss. I remember your mom driving us on a field trip. It was so much fun. She was always such fun during the plays, she and Mrs. Welch directed. You all are in my thoughts and prayers.

Lynne was a close friend to my sister Jayne Horton when they were growing up in Kingstree. She used her talents for the Lord then and continued when she moved to the beach. God's peace be with the family. Cookie

Enjoyed growing up around she and her mother playing piano and singing at Church and School. Her love of music was apparent as she could rip it up on the piano! Love to all the family and friends and all the countless others she surely touched.

Lynne was a classmate in Kingstree for 12 years and my memories of her are the class plays we did, the social groups we shared in and particularly her love for and talent for music which she shared with so many in her church life and the community her whole life. My condolences and thoughts to Kate and the entire family in her loss. I am confident that she made your lives enjoyable and she will be missed.

Pam just told me about Lynne's passing. Taking breaks with Lynne and Pam was the highlight of my day at Waccamaw. They are both so sharp and could always bring a smile. I'm so sorry to hear that Lynne is gone. Heaven needed her wit! Prayers to her family as I know you'll miss her.
