“ My fondest memory would be the week that your Mom and Dad stayed with us in a chalet on Fryes Island in the middle of Sebago Lake In Casco, Maine. I just was in awe watching your Mom and my Mom enjoying each others company. The laughter was never ending, always well into the night. Watching the two of them walking down the dirt roads that were all over the Island was just a joy. They truly were Sisters Loved them both dearly,
Richard New

One of my many favorite memories of Mrs. Herring is in 1974 she was here visiting Mrs. Ellie New and I was very pregnant with Richard's and my first child, a boy, Derek. She wanted to take me shopping for some new nightgowns for after the baby was born. So my mother-in-law and Mrs. Herring and I went shopping. She was so into shopping for me that I could have taken advantage of the situation but I did not. I got two and thanked her so much. She did more for me that day than my own mother which is when I started thinking of her as my second mom. My first mom being her best friend and my mother-in-law, Ellie. I respected that lady so much and as you get older you tend to call your elders by their first name. Out of respect, Richard and I never called her Betty. She was always was Mrs. Herring. Rest in peace Mrs. Herring.

“ To the Herring Kids,
For a group of Ron "Fish"Herring's close friends--Swope, Grout, Rothe, Layne, and Company-- just want to thank you for taking such good care of our "second Mom" in the years beyond your Dad's passing. Your Mom was a kind and no nonsense force in our lives, and we loved growing up in your chaotic friendly world. She was there when Ron strained his ankle/foot playing basketball and convinced us "he'll be fine;quit worrying" even though she had to be worried herself. She was a source of calm. And she treated us with kindness even when she had ENOUGH to handle with her stuffed house full of kids. I was lucky enough to be living close to Waccamaw to get to see her in trips to Myrtle Beach for decades in the '90s and '00s and '10s, and she just kept plugging along, loyal to your Dad's memory.

We are all poor substitutes for the resilient people our parents were, but I know you guys carry the best of F&M in small ways in each of you.

I hate to think of trips on the beach highway without knowing I can stop and touch the past through a visit, but please take comfort in knowing two people who brought you here are now hanging out up there watching over you. She was the best. RL
