

Madelyn M. Chapman

April 1, 1931 - November 28, 2007

LORIS | Madelyn Kay Mounts Chapman, 76, beloved wife of Uvalde Lincoln “Link” Chapman, went home to be with her Lord and Savior on Wednesday, November 28, 2007, at Tidelands Community Hospice in Georgetown.

Madelyn was born April 1, 1931 in Chapmanville, West Virginia, a daughter of the late Garland Wallace Mounts and the late Augusta Bryant Mounts. She grew up in Chapmanville, W.Va. and spent 56 wonderful years with Link Chapman as husband and wife. Mrs. Chapman lived in Cleveland, Ohio for 37 years and was a driving examiner for the Ohio State Highway Patrol. She was a member of the Mayflower Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star #498 in Cleveland, Ohio and a member of Living Water Baptist Church in Longs, where was active in the AWANA program for children. Mrs. Chapman was predeceased by a twin daughter, Carol Pelz, in 1990; and three brothers, Kenneth, Curtis and James Thomas Mounts.

In addition to her husband, Link, Mrs. Chapman is survived by one son, Richard Chapman and his wife, Lenore, of Holiday, Fla.; two daughters, Connie C. Spears and her husband, Scott, of Las Vegas, Nevada and Deborah C. Kilbane and her husband, Neil, of Akron, Ohio; one granddaughter, Alexandra High of Las Vegas, Nevada; one grandson, Christopher Chapman of Tustin, Calif.; and one great-grandson, Nolan Edward Chapman of Tustin, Calif.

A service to celebrate the life of Madelyn Chapman will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday, December 1, 2007, from Living Water Baptist Church, with the Rev. Lebron Crisp and the Rev. John Goudelock officiating.

In lieu of flowers, memorials are requested to AWANA Program, Living Water Baptist Church, 1569 Hwy. 9 East, Longs, SC 29568 or Tideland Community Hospice, 2591 N. Fraser St., Georgetown, SC 29440.

Ward Funeral Home of Loris, 756-9273, is serving the Chapman family.
