

Mlle J. Parmley

December 1, 1937 - March 12, 2023

Mademoiselle J. Parmley, age 85, passed away on Sunday, March 12, 2023.

Born December 1, 1937 in Conway, she was the daughter of the late Isaac and Hattie Dozier Parmley. Ms. Parmley received her master's degree in education from Webster University. She taught French, English, and Sociology in various schools in the Horry County School District and the Nelson County School District in Lynchburg, VA.

She was a 1955 graduate of Whittemore High School and earned many other undergraduate degrees at various schools.

Ms. Parmley was known by her students for her favorite quotes. Some of those include: "Be your job large or small, do it well or not at all." "Never trouble trouble until trouble troubles you." "If you don't have anything good to say about a person, don't say anything at all."

Prior to retirement, she was also employed at Waccamaw Center for Mental Health for over 25 years.

Along with her parents, Ms. Parmley was predeceased by a son, Bobby Barnhill; two sisters, Verna Lee Dozier and Azalee Johnson; a sister-in-law, Athell Parmley; and three brothers-in-law, Arthur Dozier, Eugene Ford, and Wilbert Wilks.

Surviving are her daughter, Lareefa Livingston (Richard); a son, Randy Barnhill; eight grandchildren; siblings, Odell Parmley (Winifred), Oliver Parmley (Tonya), Paul "Woody" Parmley, Isiah Parmley, Hattie Mae Wilks, and Lou Belle Ford; a daughter-in-law, Georgia Barnhill; a special sister- in- heart, Annie Margaret Walker of New York; and a host of great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and other extended family.

“ My heart is heavy getting this news! She was like a mother and my children's grandmother! Mrs. Parmley always left you laughing with a joke or two. Her wings were ready but our hearts were not! We will truley miss you mother.

“ Mlle. Jeannette was a beautiful soul, and you know exactly where you stood with her. She spoke her mind and always made you laugh whenever you saw her. My last conversation with her was full of laughs and I will cherish it forever. Sleep on Mademoiselle!
