“ We will all miss Aunt Madlyn and her visits with Uncle Frank. We always shared a lot of laughs when they came to Connecticut. I will especially miss seeing and hearing about Aunt Madlyn's newest project. We shared a love of sewing and she always had something new and creative to show me. She was so very talented. Our thoughts and prayers are with you Phil, Susan, James and Janet and your families during this difficult time.

So sorry for your loss. I met Madlyn when I was Guardian for her brother (Eugene - Ft. Myers, FL) and we had kept in touch ever since. Immediately upon meeting her, I felt a strong connection and loved her sense of humor and the kindness she showed toward Gene. She will be missed by all who knew her.
