Mae Elizabeth Ashbaugh

Mae Ashbaugh passed away on June 16, 2011 after an amazing 97 years, living through incredible changes in our country. She was preceded in death by her husband, Henry Ashbaugh, Sr.

She is survived by her son, Henry Jr. and wife Dean from Amelia Island, FL, and her daughter, Karen (Sam) Worrell and husband, Bill, of Myrtle Beach. She also has six grandchildren and one great-great-grandson.

Mae and Henry moved from California to Myrtle Beach in 1979 and quickly adapted to and loved the area. Travel was her passion and her small plaid suitcase was always packed. Knitting was her main hobby and her knitted afghans and baby blankets reside in many homes. Volunteering at Conway Hospital and Myrtle Beach Airport gave her great pleasure and a feeling of accomplishment. She brought joy and laughter to many and will be greatly missed.

She will be placed next to her husband in Pennsylvania. Services will be private.

An online guestbook is available at www.goldfinchfuneralhome.com

Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel is in charge of the arrangements.

“ Bill and Sam

My thoughts and prayers are with you with the loss of Mom.

She fought a good fight and is finally at peace, free from all pain and discomfort.

May you find comfort with the special memories you have of the times you spent together. Mae was a wonderful woman - filled with a love for life.

She will always have a place in the hearts of all those who loved her.

With all my love.
