“ Two years now mom, today is the day we laid you to rest. We miss you desperately and long for the day we see your beautiful face again. I dreamt of you last night for the first time. I hugged you and it was as if nothing ever happened. No sadness, no death. Just a normal hi mom and a hug. I didn't wake up sad. It was so disconnected from the reality we live. Love you forever momma.

“ Everything you do is a gift. You have a big heart that loves the Lord, and by you walking the right path, you are showing even in hard times, God will hold your hand. Many days go by that I think of your mom. I only met her once, But her words ring true to this very day. Let the love in your heart lead you on the right path. I thank you for letting me get to know her through you. You are so much like your mom. She is smiling down on you and sending kisses and hugs to you my dear friend.

“ February 11th was 6 months since God called you home. We miss you mom...it feels like it was yesterday and some days it feels like it's been a lifetime since I've seen you. I wish I could hug you and hear your voice again, it's hard mom. The void is real...trying to work with it, fill in that hole with memories of you. We love you forever.

“ My aunt magda was one of a kind I have many happy childhood memories of her one when she would dress as santana and Sue and Wendy were her angels and they would come to.our house and my treasured mama Jensen cabbage patch dolls that she so skillfully crafted my three girls get to play with it and know my aunt. May she be at peace

“ I have had the honor of knowing Mrs. Jensen for over 30 years. I will always remember her smile and how gracious she was. I met her when Ron and I worked together at MCI in Newark, New Jersey a very "long" time ago. We were at many parties together over the years in New Jersey and the last time we saw each other was here in Tampa in the early 2000's when they were on vacation with the "family".

We will miss you and I look forward to meeting up with you again in the next life in heaven if "I" make it there.

God Bless you Mrs. Jensen.

“ Magda was a wonder and loving person. She will be greatly missed by her family and friends, We all know she is looking down at us from Heaven. It was wonderful to be able to see her a few years back. Wish would have been able to get down south more often.

We give our thoughts and prayers to the family. Love Cousin Helen, and kids and grandkids.

“ *To My Dear Sister Magda's Family.
It is soo devastating to lose a wife, mother, grandmother,great-grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend. Magda and I come from a family of seven sibilings and Christians parents. About 8 years ago I lost my older sister Barbara, now I lost my other sister Madga. I still have my 4 brothers,, but there is nothing like a true bond of sisters. Only sisters can know that bond. Yes, we had our ups and downs, but we always got pass them, as loving sisters do..I know Magda is with our loving parents,sister Barbara, many of our family members and friends.Their souls have entered the Kingdom of Heaven and have become Angels who watch over us here on Earth. When Jesus died for our sins,He said" Love one another as I love you." Magda's daughter Sue-Ann was with Magda as Magda passed,and she told Sue-Ann to "tell everyone that she loves us all." Love is a wonderful thing.God is LOVE,so why do we not obey Him so all the world will have Peace. Life has not ended it has ony changed. Rest in peace my Dear Sister Maagda.. My Dear Sister, My Friend, We will meet again. Save me a set of Wings and we fly together with Sister Barbara.I LOVE YOU AND WLL DEARLY MISS YOU LOVE YOUR KID SISTER MARY ^i^*

“ It was a pleasure to be neighbors of Ron and Magda for 9 years. My 1st memory of Magda was in my back yard and we talked about having a relationship with Jesus. Soon after that Ron and Magda began attending Carolina Forest Community Church. She was a faithful greeter always with a smile, hugs and encouraging words. I moved away to Charleston in 2009 and missed having fellowship in Magda's home.

“ I have no memories of your mom, but I do know that she had to have been a beautiful person inside as well as outside to have raised such a wonderful daughter like you Wendy. I was privileged and thankful that you asked me to lift her in prayer as she struggled with her illness. And I know that like you, she fought the good fight and though she is no longer here in the earth, she certainly has the victory because there is no sting in her death. She won the battle of her life because she is walking the streets of gold with our Heavenly Father, Jesus and our precious Holy Spirit. I will continue to lift you and your beautiful family in prayer my friend. I know that these are difficult days for you, but I also know that the Lord will see you through. You are a strong woman of God whom I admire and am blessed to call you friend. May God give you the strength you need to get through these next couple of days. God Bless you my friend.

“ So blessed to have known this beautiful lady. Her smile filled the room and her friendly manner always made me feel welcome. The love she had for her family was evident - as was the love her family had for her. My thoughts and prayers are with each of you - she will be missed.

“ Our family is heartbroken over the loss of mom. She was my rock! She loved life, She loved to paint and craft and be with children. I can't begin to imagine not seeing you again. I know I will see you in heaven , heart wrenching to have to wait. Until then I will carry on with wonderful thoughts of you and pass on to my children all you have taught me. You are a part of all of us and we will forever miss you until we see your beautiful face again. Love you mom
