“ Walter,

I wish to extend my deepest sympathy to you and your family. I have only known Marcelle a short time through our monthly Wednesday lunches. She emanated a graceful, gentle, joyful and kind spirit. I will remember her with great fondness.

With deep sympathy,

“ *Dear Friend Walter and Family ~
Marcelle was the loveliest of women to grace our lives. Her infectious laughter and keen sense of humor lit up the atmosphere whenever and wherever we gathered. She was a beautiful and multi-talented lady who never lost her child-like wonder of life; endearing her to so many. Our world is now that much poorer for having lost her, but that much richer for having known her glowing spirit. The deep and abiding love you two shared inspired in us an everlasting memory of the true meaning of the term "soul mates".
We embrace you all in our hearts and prayers and entrust you to His healing mercies.
Love and Blessings ~

“ Walter and Family.....Jean and I offer our thoughts and prayers to you in this time of great loss. Although we have only known Marcelle for a few years we knew her to be caring, talented and loving. Her dedication to helping young artists in the community set the bar for all of us to follow. May you be comforted by all of the loving memories of the time you shared together. She will be dearly missed by all of her Seacoast friends.

“ Dear Walter, I am so sorry for your loss. Seeing you and Marcelle at the Litchfield Exchange or at the Strand theater together always made my heart widen with a smile. The way you demonstrated your love for one another was so beautiful and real and inspiring. Thank you both for those gifts to me. I am sending you a warm and loving hug of comfort during this very, very difficult time. With sympathy, Lisa Rosof

“I am so sorry for your loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, the kind acts of friends and strangers, as well as your memories give you comfort to help you endure the days ahead. The Bible also offers comfort. “For God is near to those broken at heart. “ Ps 34:17,18. Our Creator promises that there will soon be a time when “death will be no more.” Revelation 21:4
