“ We had no idea Margaret had passed away. I’m so sorry to read this. We met Margaret and Mario at St. Michael’s Catholic Church. We were friends for quite some time. We were there when Mario had passed away and unfortunately we were not for Margaret. Due to COVID and us transferring to another Parish and Margaret in a nursing home prior to her passing we lost touch. We have heartfelt sympathy for the entire family and regrets that we did not know. Our friendship was short but our friendship was surreal. Mario was fun, a jokester, sweet and dedicated his life to taking care of Margaret. Margaret was a nicely dressed, proper, smart, and religious woman who’s world fell apart after losing Mario. Margaret, I want you to know how deeply sorry we are for losing touch at the end of your life. We loved both you and Mario. I’m sure you are resting in peace and joined the love of your life, Mario and extended family.
Love Sandra and Nelson Gomes.
