“ The passing of Mrs Jones breaks my heart. She was a wonderful woman, I looked up to her and hope to be half the woman she was. She often gave me great advice and always talked about our families. I wish comfort for her family during this time. I will never forget this woman!

“ Dearest family: I am so saddened by Joyce's death and it's almost unbelievable how the family has left us in recent years. I didn't see her as much as I should and wished I had, but we could always pick up right where we left off. She was an amazing lady and a wonderful cook! She fed us when Larry passed, and everybody raved about how good it was. I will truly miss her as I know you will, but she and Rosanne are solving all the world's problems! Love you all bunches. “ I got to know Joyce as a part of Lay Servant Ministry in the Methodist Church. For over twenty years Joyce was always at the Lay Speaking Schools. It was always great to be in the same class with her because of her knowledge and experience. She was such a pleasure to sit and talk with as well and she would always mention the mountains. It will not seem right for her not to be there. God Bless all of you.

- “ 10 Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies.
- 11 The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil.
- 12 She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life.
- 13 She seeketh wool, and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands.
- 14 She is like the merchants' ships; she bringeth her food from afar.
- 15 She riseth also while it is yet night, and giveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens.
- 16 She considereth a field, and buyeth it: with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard.
- 17 She girdeth her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms.
- 18 She perceiveth that her merchandise is good: her candle goeth not out by night.
- 19 She layeth her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff.
- 20 She stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy.
- 21 She is not afraid of the snow for her household: for all her household are clothed with scarlet.
- 22 She maketh herself coverings of tapestry; her clothing is silk and purple.
- 23 Her husband is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land.
- 24 She maketh fine linen, and selleth it; and delivereth girdles unto the merchant.
- 25 Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come.
- 26 She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness.
- 27 She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness.
- 28 Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her.
- 29 Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all.

30 Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the LORD, she shall be praised.

31 Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates. Proverbs 31:10-31

I feel this passage of scripture best describes Ms Joyce. She was a caring and loving woman.

When I first came to Goldfinchs, she was the one you wanted on your side. Because she signed the checks 🙏 We talked about different things and she gave you her opinion on the matter because 99.0% of the time she was right.

But she will be greatly missed and may her legacy continue to live on.

We love you Jim and your dear family ❤️ We are praying as well 🙏

“Mrs. Joyce” as I called her was always such a sweet and caring woman of faith. When Chloe and I started dating and I first met everyone in the family, Joyce immediately welcomed me with open arms. She knew how to show and spread love through her wonderful cooking, and I truly mean it when I say she made the best home cooked meals that I have ever had. She was always so generous and it was evident by everyone who only had positive things to say about her. I appreciate the years that I was able to spend with Joyce and get to know her better. Heaven certainly gained an angel and I’m happy to know that she is in heaven at peace.

“ I met Ms Joyce when I left Niagara Falls, NY in 1997 and came to serve my apprenticeship at GFFH. Her first words about me were to George Heyward “ you hired a man without a drivers license” when it was learned I had lost my wallet along the way down and had to get a new one before she could onboard me into the company system. Needless to say with the respect GFFH had in Conway, I had a new SC drivers license that afternoon. I apologized to her and from then on she treated me like I was one of her own. She knew her business well and made me feel welcome in little ole Conway, SC. She made an incredible chicken bog and was just a pleasure to work under in the short time I was there.

Heaven gained a wonderful woman. Her, Heyward, Mack and Will are now all looking down on GFFH from above.

God Bless her family as they say goodbye to her.
