“ Margaret was one of the kindest, sweetest, loving ladies Jo and I had the chance to know at our SUMC, our restaurants etc. Always had a smile on her face, never heard say a unkind word about anybody, when she walked in a room she brightened the room up. So sorry we missed her celebration of life Sunday just found about it today. God speed Ms. Margaret on your journey to Heaven to be in the arms of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. We all know you are there as you were the perfect Christian Lady that came into our lives.

“ I had the privilege of loving Mrs. Margaret for what seems like all my whole life. She and my mother, Vickie Cooper, worked together at Dargan Construction Company in Myrtle Beach. Mrs. Margaret's infectious laugh, loving smile, and beautiful personality made her so special. We will miss seeing her when we visit Garden City, but we know she is in Heaven singing with the angels! We are praying for peace and comfort for all who knew and loved Mrs. Margaret. She was definitely one of a kind and will be greatly missed.

“ Ms. Margaret was one sweet lady-an easy smile and wonderful laugh. It's far too easy to fall out of touch as we all grow older. Hoping the family finds strength and comfort during this time.

“ My deepest and most heart-felt condolences to Margaret’s family. She loved you all so much. Margaret was beautiful, smart, kind, and talented. I worked with her several years at Dargan Construction Company and we were sad but happy for her when she retired from there. In closing, I will always remember something Margaret would say when she heard sad news, “My.....My.” Now, I will also say it, “My.....My.” She was a dear friend.
