“ I remember that when we were on our way from one duty station to another, we would always come by and see you guys. Everyone was so very friendly and your moms cooking was something we talked about many times over the years. I hope you find the peace Christ offers and know that you all remian in our prayers.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May Jehovah God comfort and strengthen you during this most difficult time. Psalms 147:3 says, "He is healing the brokenhearted ones, and is binding up their painful spots." God gives us hope in that he has promised with assurance through his son, Jesus that 'all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out...' (John 5:25, 26, 28 and 29) Then, "God will wipe away every tear from (our) eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore..." (Revelation 21:4); and no more sickness, old age or wickedness! (Isaiah 33:24; Job 33:25; Psalms 37:9-11, 29) May your wonderful memories and the prospect of seeing Miss Margaret again-fortify your faith and give you hope. You have my deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Tammy Johnson, Lawton, OK##imported-end##
