“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, the kind acts of friends and strangers, as well as your memories give you comfort to help you endure the days ahead. The Bible also offers comfort. “For God is near to those broken at heart. “ Ps 34:17,18. Our Creator promises that there will soon be a time when “death will be no more.” Revelation 21:4

“ "Dear Dick and Family
Please know that a very special lady in our lives went to heaven on Thursday and we will miss her deeply too. We wish we could join you in remembering Pargie's life of Sunday but time and distance is to great. But know you'll be in our thoughts and prayers during this very difficult time and we hope that you find comfort in knowing that our dear Pargie is now well and happy enjoying the joys of heaven. Plus hopefully they have a good supply of hooks and needles there so she can continue her beautiful handwork on gloves for the angels! I know I feel special and loved when I put mine on and remember her smile and laughter. It was a blessing to know her and have her for a period in our lives.
Love and God Bless Lowell and Margaret"

“ Dear Family,
Please know that I am truly sorry for your loss, and accept my condolences and some words of comfort from God's Word, the Bible.
Please know that our loving Creator did not intend for us to die, so he purposes to reunite us with our dear loved ones who have fallen asleep in death. (Job 14:14,15; Isaiah 26;19; John 5:28,29)
Knowing that you will see Ms. Margaret again will hopefully bring you a large measure of peace and comfort.
Our merciful God, Jehovah, is also there to help sustain you through difficult times such as this. (Psalms 9:9,10; 145:18,19; 1 Peter 5:7)
So, please rely fully upon "the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation."--2 Corinthians 1:3,4.
I will also keep you in my prayers.
Sincerely Yours,
