

Marian Snyder King

July 20, 2009

MARIAN SNYDER KING, 93, died Monday, July 20. She is survived by her daughters, Carolyn (Larry) Walker of Atlanta GA, and Joanne (Tom) Langfitt of Myrtle Beach; grandsons David Walker of Long Island NY, Andrew Walker of Nashville TN, Bill Langfitt of Myrtle Beach, Jim Langfitt of Miami FL, and three great grandchildren. Her husband of 68 years, Henry G. King, predeceased her in January 2009. Born in Hellier KY, Mrs. King earned a degree in journalism from Marshall University in Huntington WV. In 1952 the family relocated to Charleston WV where she was active with the Girl Scouts of America before she and Henry retired to Myrtle Beach in 1981. They made many new friends in Deerfield Plantation and later at Covenant Towers. Friends may call from 1 – 3 p.m. Saturday at the Covenant Towers parlor; interment will be private. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Grand Strand Humane Society, 3241 10th Avenue N. Ext., Myrtle Beach SC 29577, or to the charity of one's choice. The family extends special thanks to the staff of Myrtle Beach Estates and Southern Care Hospice. Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel will handle all arrangements.

“ My Mother, Ruby Graham, lived at Myrtle Beach Estates in the Alzheimer's unit. I use to enjoy talking with Marian and her husband on the porch. I am also from WV, which also gave us a connection. Your parents were lovely people and Marian always had a smile on her face. I'm sure that both of them will be greatly missed! Wanda Freeland##imported-begin##Wanda Freeland##imported-end##
