“ Aunt Marie has given family and friends so many loving memories to hold on to. Mine will always be her friendship with my Mom and their relationship. I can not think of any greater love then those two ladies had for each other.... With loving thoughts and deepest sympathy to her family. “ We cherish the memory of Aunt Marie and we send our deepest sympathy to her family. We will always remember Aunt Marie sitting around the table sharing stories about family and friends. Sometimes Aunt Marie and Monk would get together and have fig night and enjoy good food and coffee. Those were the best times being around such a good person that made us laugh about so many things.##imported-begin##Laura and Michael Shytle##imported-end##

“ Grandma was loved by her family, especially adored by her grand daughter, Cathi. I only met her once and I remember how vibrant and full of life she was. I will always be thankful for having had the opportunity to have met her and I know she will be greatly missed. My thoughts and prayers are with you all during your time of loss.
