

Mrs. Marie V. Watts

January 3, 1934 - July 30, 2017

Marie V. Watts, age 83, wife of the late John Byrd Watts, passed away Sunday, July 30, 2017 at her residence.

Born January 3, 1934 in Conway, SC, she was the daughter of the late Benjamin Olin and Delta Mae Chestnut Vaught. Prior to her retirement, Mrs. Watts was employed for more than 42 years with Santee Cooper. She was a previous member of the Conway Pilot Club and a current member of Salem Baptist Church. She served the church in many capacities throughout the years. Mrs. Watts loved being outdoors, especially working with her flowers and roses. She also enjoyed crocheting. In addition to her parents and husband, Mrs. Watts was also preceded in death by six siblings and one granddaughter, Whitney Barnhill.

Survivors include her two daughters, Pam Ross and Pandra W. Johnston (Joey) all of Conway; one brother, LaRue Vaught (Dot) of Columbia; three grandchildren, Garrett Johnston and fiancée' (Gina McDowell), Grant Johnston, and Gentry Johnston all of Conway; and one great-grandson, Brewer Cannon of Conway.

A funeral service will be held at 4:00 PM Tuesday, August 1, 2017 at Salem Baptist Church with Pastor Ken Herrington officiating. Burial will follow in the church cemetery.

The family will receive friends in the church fellowship hall following the service.

The family would like to extend a special thank you to Mrs. Watt's caregivers of the last few years for their compassionate service.

“ Pam and Pandra and family,

We are very sorry for your loss. Marie was a great friend and neighbor. We enjoyed visiting with her and giving her a kitten every now and then. She will surely be missed.
