“ I have lost my best friend, the kind of friend you have that no one equals or can be replaced. I can not express my sadness that Marieann will not be here for me next time I need my friend which is now and forever.

Marieann is my daughters Godmother and was there for me when the military sent me TDY. Marieann and DC filled the void by caring for her as if she was their own. I am lost for words because I just can't believe it. Who do I share my laughs and tears with now. It was truly a honor to be Marieann's friend and I will always remember the times we had over these nearly 26 years. I send my Love to DC and the family, I would hope we all stay in each other's life and celebrate Mariieann. With all my love Belinda

“ I've lost one of my precious BFFs. Marieann was a light that shown and will shine forever. I am so happy that her first and only trip to New York City was with me. We hung and check out NYC to the max, ending in a jazz club Harlem. I'm so thankful that she was a vibrant and wonderful part of our lives. Our prayers are on-going for her husband and our friend, DC, and her wonderful family. Marieann, you will be missed..."RIP"
