“ RIP my good friend Marilee - Twila informed me she passed away this morning.

She was a kindred spirit and a loving sister type to me - we talked for hours and hours and hours over the last 10 years or so since we became friends, and the call always ended with a sincere "Love you Jonathon" and "Love you too Marilee". She had a lot of physical challenges in the last couple years since she moved to the Carolinas, and we didn't get to talk as much because of the time difference- but every couple months we spent at least an hour talking.

Tears.....

“ Marilee came into my life at a time when she wanted some changes. Her quick wit was always a pleasure. I loved the way she settled into Conway looking for what she could give back to her community. And she did a lot of that. She will be missed. And Melissa, well you were the world to her. I loved your relationship. She will live on in many hearts and from several worlds. RIP and keep surprising your new existence with wit and wisdom.
