“ *Patti, Dean, and family,
I saw what Dean had written about Mrs. Marjorie on facebook. A life well lived and a blessing to her family. One of God's dear saints. She'll be missed, but oh~ what a reunion it will be! May you find comfort and peace as you reflect and ponder over fond memories of her during the remainder of your lives. May God bless you all.*

“ Patti, Carol and families,

Sorry to hear of your mother's passing. She was truly a beautiful lady, always neatly dressed, and always had the time for a friendly chat with her sweet smile. Our friendship goes back for many years. I remember the Girl Scout days with cookie sales and all through the years, even with our chats in the parking lot at Food Lion. Memories are priceless and I know you have many. May God's love and sweet spirit surround you in the days ahead.

Carol, so sorry to hear about your mom. Although I did not know her, if she was anything like her daughter, she must have been a wonderful lady. As they say "the apple doesn't fall far from the tree." She will be missed by many. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.
