Tribute Wall

“ I would like to extend my sincerest condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Marjorie Miller Noe. She had the wonderful privilege of working with her husband for fifty years in the ministry. She touched many lives during that time and will be greatly missed. No doubt she was determined to instill solid Christian teachings into her children. That will be your support and strength during this time. Death is an enemy of life. We naturally want to spend as much time as we can with our friends and family. At Ecclesiastes 3:11 it is written: ?He has put time indefinite into our hearts.? As a Christian family, nurtured in the scriptures, the hope of the resurrection is not a new one to you. I?m sure Marjorie comforted many in her congregation with that hope from God?s Word. Sometimes though, what we have shared with others we don?t think about for ourselves. Now is the time to reflect on God?s Word as it pertains to you personally. Resurrection Day will be a joyful time as we welcome back our dead loved ones. Recall what John 5:28 tells us. ?Do not marvel at this but the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear my voice and come out.? Remember the joy Martha and Mary felt when Jesus resurrected his beloved friend, Lazarus? That account at John 11:11-44 is most encouraging. After praying to his Heavenly Father, Jesus called out to Lazarus to come on out. Imagine Jesus calling, ?Marjorie, it is time to come on out!? The resurrection of Jesus Christ guarantees us that we can put our hope in this promise. We know that God cannot lie. Hebrews 6:18 What he says will be fulfilled. Isaiah 55:11 Our faith is based on his word, the Bible. 2 Timothy 3:16, Hebrews 11:1 At the 21st chapter of Revelation we can read about the future when it says at vs. 4 which says, ?And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore The former things have passed away.? It is my desire that my letter to you will bring you hope and comfort during this time of mourning. My prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Suzanne Lombardo##imported-end##
