“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as God's word the bible. Why do people we love die? Romans 5:12 says: "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away

“ It's hard with the loss of grandma Ross! But if she didn't like you she would tell you straight up! I loved her she was a great grandma and I love her! She lived a good life! I'm happy she is up there in heaven square dancing with grandpa Ross.

“ Grandma Ross seemed to always say her opinion, she did not care who heard. One thing that I've learned from that was you grow stronger and more confident. Being in another country makes it hard to visit family on a daily basis, however when I lived close, we made it one of our top priorities to see and care for her. It didn't matter if we cleaned the whole entire house for her, or sat down just to put together a puzzle.. The point was spending quality time and that's what she loved. Grandma Ross was "a tough cookie" but in the end she effected us all in some way or another. I love and miss you!

“ I am saddened by the loss of Gramma Ross, but also happy that she has reunited with Grampa Ross. I have quite a few memories of her, but would like to share a special one. Gramma Ross and I had a special bond and would build puzzles together which she loved to do. When she would have her catheter changed, I would always hold her hand and she would squeeze mine and I would tell her I love you. I will always love and miss her, she will always be remembered. Love, your greatest granddaughter Brianna Aguirre.

“ Rest in peace Grandma Ross. One thing I will always miss about my great grandma is the laughs we had when she called me by her nick name for me "Cathy". I would always tell her my name is CATHERINE and she would smile and call me "Cathy" again. I will never forget about all the jewelry that we made together. Grandma Ross made beautiful jewelry that I still have today. My Grandma Ross and I would also sit down and draw and talk about our day. For everyone who ever knew Grandma Ross, she is in a better place now. I love you Grandma Ross! Catherine Aguirre Great Granddaughter

“ Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal. This is on a headstone in Ireland and sure hits home with feelings concerning my grandmother. She was always an intricate part of our family. Both Uli and I have such fond memories of so many joyous occasions. I know that she is with all her family and friends that she has no pain or worries now. We were lucky to have her for 92 years although she will be missed dearly. I can still see her throwing a kiss and telling me "love ya doll" " tell Superman to be careful and all those other soldiers are in good hands with him around". I love you Gramma!
