

Marjorie Ann Parker Rogers

September 12, 2012

Marjorie Ann Parker Rogers, resident of Morningside Assisted Living of Greenwood, South Carolina, passed away Wednesday, September 12, 2012. She was the daughter of the late Walter J. and Annie Barkley Parker of North Myrtle Beach South Carolina.

Born in Raleigh, North Carolina, she grew up in Horry County, South Carolina and graduated with honors from Conway High School. She met and married her beloved late husband C. O. "Clen" Rogers when he was stationed at Myrtle Beach Air Force Base before being deployed overseas during WWII. Marjorie supported the war effort by working at the shipyard in Brunswick, Georgia, where they built liberty ships while Clen saw duty in Burma, India, and Southeast Asia. They were married for sixty –six years.

Mrs. Rogers is survived by her daughter, Nan McLean of Birmingham, Alabama; son, Robert (Jill) Rogers of Anchorage, Alaska; granddaughters, Laine (Ken) Orcutt of Greenwood, South Carolina, Rebecca Rogers of Anchorage; grandsons, Derek Rogers of Anchorage, Marc McLean and Matthew (Christy) McLean of Birmingham; Great-grand children, Adeline Clen Orcutt of Greenwood and Collin McLean of Birmingham. She is also survived by her sister Billie Lee of Waynesville, North Carolina; and two brothers, John W. Parker of Savannah, Georgia and Jerry W. Parker of Costa Mesa, California.

She was a charter member of Timberlake Baptist Church and was active there until moving to Greenwood in 2006. Marjorie, dearly loved by her family and friends, brought happiness to many and she was even nicknamed 'Joy' since childhood. She was known for being a great cook and a wonderful seamstress. She excelled at all word games and even won at Bananagram the day before she passed away.

Funeral services will be held at 2:00 P.M. Sunday, September 16, 2012 at Timberlake Baptist Church with Dr. Kirk Lawton officiating. Burial to follow in Hillcrest Cemetery. The family will receive visitors one hour prior to the service at Timberlake.

Memorials may be made to Timberlake Baptist Church, 9850 Highway 707, Myrtle Beach, South Carolina 29588.

Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel is in charge of the arrangements.

“ What a truly lovely and loving woman your sister, mother, grandmother and great grandmother was. She has always been so nice to those of us at Morningside and was a real trooper and sweetheart throughout her recuperations. Her presence is badly missed. You are fortunate to have had her for this long. Billie, we'll really miss your visits and hope you are doing well. Nancy Miller
