“ Our family was saddened to learn of Mark's passing. We have many fond memories of childhood days spent between Kenny and Mark in the neighborhood and Midget League Football days through high school. We'll remember the family in our prayers and you'll be in our thoughts. Alma Lou, Joe and Kenny Shaffer

“ Dorie we were shocked and saddened to hear the sad news about Mark. We always enjoyed his meals and especially getting to hear him tell it like it is. No sugar on top. He never hesitated a second when I asked him to support our charity golf tournament over the years. He will be missed by many friends and the community. Our thoughts are with you and the family.
