I'm sad that you are gone. Wherever you lived you always kept in touch. So many memories of you, jeeps, catamarans, University Forest, you were always around our house. Like a fixture. Calls from you out of the blue. Im sad that you didn't get to enjoy your jeep yet you love her all the same. I hope I get to see you again one day. xox

“ Fletch was always a “friend” you could count on at the bar. He was super easy to talk to and always had something positive to say. I was happy to see him excel in his real estate venture. He was a kind soul, a real friend, and a really good person. He will really be missed.

“ Mark Fletcher was one of the greatest guys I ever knew. I met Mark in Winston Salem a few years ago while doing maintenance and repair work for LA Cima restaurants. Super nice guy, the essence of coolest guy around.
